

Planting Divine Qualities, Harvesting the Blessings
Heaven on Earth
A Dances of Universal Peace Retreat with Anahata Iradah

April 29-30, 2017

SCHEDULE

Registration 8:15 - 9:15 AM

Retreat begins at 9:30 Saturday and ends after lunch Sunday

Welcome to the first-ever overnight retreat with the Dances of Universal Peace in Central Iowa.

Newcomers as well as old hands are invited to join the circle as we focus on embodying Divine Qualities in ourselves.

From humanity's beginnings, sacred movement, song and story have brought people together - as part of everyday life and for special life passages and ceremonies.

Dances of Universal Peace allow us to step into this timeless tradition celebrating the sacred in community through music and movement.

Anahata Iradah is a senior teacher in the Mentor Teacher's Guild of the International Network for the Dances of Universal Peace.

She is a gifted musician, teacher, composer, songwriter, meditation teacher and documentary film producer.

With the encouragement of her teacher, ShinzenYoung, Anahata has combined the Dances of Universal Peace with Buddhist meditation techniques and teachings.

Anahata orchestrates spiritual pilgrimages to India, Nepal, New Zealand and Brazil.

A native of England, she currently resides on Angel Farm in Georgia.

Reserve your place with $100 now, and the rest will be due on April 1.

Retreat cost of $125
Includes 4 meals: Saturday lunch and dinner, Sunday breakfast and lunch, and all retreat activities.

A late fee of $25 will be added after April 1st.

Newton Christian Conference Center is a rural conference center and summer camp, 40 miles east of Des Moines and 4 minutes off I-80.
